Community / Common Good

“For as in one body we have many members...so we, who are many, are one body in Christ.”

(Romans 12:4-5)

As people, we are not only individual, but social. What is important is not only what will help each one of us, but what will be good for the whole community and the whole society.

In his letters, St. Paul called the members of the churches he started, the Body of Christ. He encouraged the members to use their talents to work together within each church in the same way that the different parts of the body work together for the good of the whole body.

Since we are members of the body of Christ, we have an obligation to recognize and use our talents to build the Kingdom of God in our Catholic school community.

Faith in Action Question: How do we build the kingdom in our Catholic Community?”
